Which Body Shape Are You?

Look like a star with the Shop Translated body type guide! We'll show you how to identify your body type, and give you the inside scoop on building a wardrobe that will flatter your figure in no time. This guide will show you how to work your assets, de-emphasize trouble areas, and step out looking like you're ready for the red carpet!

Pick Your Body Type

PEAR BODY TYPE

DESCRIPTION: You're lean in the neck, shoulder, and waist areas, and you are rockin' one bodacious bum!

CELEBRITY PEARS: Beyoncé, Jennifer Lopez, Alicia Keys

SHOP TRANSLATED ADVICE: The trick you want to master is balance. You can create it by choosing blouses that are fitted at the waist and flare out at the hips. Attract attention to your delicate décolleté by choosing pieces with fun and funky details at the neck and collar. Your strut never looked sexier than in A-line dresses and skirts that highlight your leaner assets. Wear pieces that add flare at the bottom to help cover up bothersome bulges. And don't forget to spice up every outfit by accessorizing! Sassy scarves and eye-catching necklaces will bring color to your ensemble and draw attention upwards to that mesmerizing smile.

APPLE BODY TYPE

DESCRIPTION: You have lean limbs and a juicy mid-section. Your secret for looking fabulous is to play up your voluptuous breasts, and show off those sexy arms and legs.

CELEBRITY APPLES: Nikki Blonsky, Rosie O'Donnell, Camryn Manheim

SHOP TRANSLATED ADVICE: Be daring! Show off those sexy gams by donning mini skirts and dresses in flowy, flirty fabrics. Sleeveless tops will put your arms and that lovely visage at center stage. Shop for shirts with a little extra length to cover that tummy, and look for distinct bust areas to create a dazzling and defined figure. Accessorize with bold scarves or eye-popping earrings. Last but not least, treat your feet to some snazzy shoes – a surefire way to put a little sass in your step.

HEART BODY TYPE

DESCRIPTION: The heart-shaped woman has it all going on in the bust area! Look for bright colors and prints that rock your booty and balance out your generous bust line.

CELEBRITY HEARTS: Salma Hayek, Queen Latifah, Toccara Jones

SHOP TRANSLATED ADVICE: Shop for tops that lengthen and slim your torso while flaunting the assets you're boasting in your upper regions. If you dare, deep v-necks are perfect. Or, you can choose fitted scoop neck shirts with a slimming, defined bust. Bold print skirts and flared pants will balance out your bottom half by generating a little extra width down below. Look for bright colors that put the spotlight on your lower half, and accessorize with an oversized belt to emphasize your waist and give your body a sexy hourglass figure that will stop them dead in their tracks!
